Enjoying Life Sip by Sip...Not Gulp at CuppaTea

"Imagine yourself lounging inside a former antique and garden shop, the aroma of tea gently sweeping past you as you take in the serenity of your surroundings, your cares drifting out of the opened windows along with the sweet aromatic fragrance. This could be you, when you enjoy life sip by sip...not gulp by gulp. "

Ahhh...this was the vision of Lurline Wagner and her husband Allan who decided to open Cuppa Tea tearoom in Richmond, VA. Their vision is now reality and we wanted to here the whole scoop about how it happened and how sipping tea together can connect us, especially with family and friends during the holidays.
