

When served in The Original Painted Ladies teapot, $38, Versailles Lavender Earl Grey tea adds color to any tea party. From Carytown Teas, 24-25 S. Nansmond St.; 358-8327; www.carytownteas.com.

discoveries

Rose Medallion Teapot, $395 from Willow Place Antiques Gallery, 5446 W. Broad St., 288-6301.

The Tetsubin Year of the Monkey teapot, $98, is the ideal choice to serve Keemun imperial tea. From Carytown Teas.

time for tea

Drinking tea has never been so much fun. by Mark Jeffries

Majolica Etruscan Cauliflower teapot circa late 1800s, $395 from Willow Place Antiques Gallery.

The Saturn Tea Set, which includes four teacups, is the perfect vessel to serve green tea with cherries and rose petals. $37.50 from Cuppa Tea Company, 1 N. Morris St.; 254-8322; www.cuppatea.com.

Provence rooibos with lavender from the South of France is a wonderful tea to serve in the Marie Antoinette teapot, $58 from Cuppa Tea Company.